Internet Protocol Address(es) ("IP Addresses"):

This Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of this day, the _____ of _____, _____, by and between The MIT Press, a department of Massachusetts Institute of Technology ("MIT Press"), and the institution identified above ("Subscribing Institution"). This Agreement sets forth Subscribing Institution's rights and obligations regarding access to and use of MIT CogNet™, the brain and cognitive science community online, (the "Licensed Material") currently located at: <http://cognet.mit.edu> (the "Website"). The Licensed Material and Website are provided by MIT Press and its suppliers, subject to Subscribing Institution's agreement to the terms and conditions below.

Please address any questions concerning the terms of the agreement to jdpcs-licenses@mit.edu. Access or subscription queries should be directed to cognet@mit.edu.

By executing this Agreement, the Subscribing Institution accepts the following terms and conditions:

1. Scope of License. Subscribing Institution Use Restrictions.

Under this Agreement, Subscribing Institution is granted a nonexclusive, revocable, nontransferable right and license to access and use MIT CogNet on the World Wide Web via the Subscribing Institution's IP addresses and, in connection with the foregoing, to permit Subscribing Institution's Authorized Users to access and use MIT CogNet.

The content of MIT CogNet is derived from many sources, including but not limited to MIT Press, other publishers, and individuals who post material of their own. Some of this material is copy-protected, and it is a violation of this license for any Authorized User to disable or assist others to disable such copy protection. With respect to any material included in MIT CogNet that is not copy-protected, an Authorized User may:

- Download articles, chapters, and other similar quantities of such material for personal use, and archive similar quantities of such material on his/her own personal computer. Note: the purpose of this is to enable research-driven, as-needed downloading. This means (among other things) that bulk downloading is expressly forbidden, as is serial or cumulative downloading that results in the user reproducing on his or her computer, in effect, all or any substantial subset of any journal issue or book or other work contained in MIT CogNet.

- Print out journal articles, chapters of books, and other similar quantities of such material for personal use. As above, bulk printing and serial printing that results in the user reproducing all or any substantial subset of any journal issue or book or other work contained in MIT CogNet, are not allowed.
- Send one copy of any article, chapter, and other similar quantity of material by email, hard copy or fax to one person at another location for that individual's personal use as above. This means (among other things) that bulk forwarding is expressly forbidden, as is serial or cumulative forwarding that results in a third person's reproducing on his or her computer, in effect, all or any substantial subset of CogNet.
- Make traditional scholarly re-use of material within the bounds of fair use.
- In addition, an Authorized User who is a librarian of the Subscribing Institution may provide via paper, fax, or digital transmission, a facsimile image (e.g., a PDF file) that is an exact representation of the print pages, or a printout of an electronic file, for interlibrary loan under CONTU guidelines.

All other uses are prohibited. Without limitation, an Authorized User may not:

- disseminate any such material outside the Subscribing Institution by any means, except as noted above
- make multiple copies in either digital or paper form
- store any electronic file of such material on any intranet or other centrally accessible network or server, including but not limited to for "coursepack" purposes.

Also please note that the above permissions to download, print out, and distribute copies, do not apply to materials (including, without limitation, monographs) that are copy-protected, and any attempt to disable copy-protection of such materials is a violation of the licenses herein granted.

"Authorized Users" are the employees, faculty, staff, and students officially affiliated with the Subscribing Institution or patrons of the Subscribing Institution's library facilities. This includes occasional users who access MIT CogNet through stations physically located on the site and under the control and administration of the Subscribing Institution. Authorized Users also includes persons affiliated with remote sites or campuses of the Subscribing Institution that are administered from the Subscribing Institution's site or campus, but not persons affiliated with remote teaching campuses that have separate administrative staffs. There are no contractual restrictions on the number of Authorized Users from campus at any given time.

All rights in MIT CogNet content not specifically licensed for access, use, or copying under this agreement are reserved by the respective copyright owners.

This Agreement does not permit sharing MIT CogNet among a regional consortium. If MIT Press at any time determines in its sole discretion that the range of IP addresses claimed by the Subscribing Institution represents more than one institution, it may terminate this Agreement forthwith by notice to the Subscribing Institution.

The Subscribing Institution is responsible for taking reasonable measures to prevent access by unauthorized persons to its IP addresses, and is responsible for terminating any unauthorized access of which it has actual notice or knowledge. The Subscribing Institution will not be held responsible for uses of the online version of MIT CogNet that are contrary to the guidelines stated above, provided that such uses are without its express or implied consent, and provided that it promptly notifies MIT Press of any such use of which it becomes aware and takes all reasonable steps to terminate such activity.

The Subscribing Institution agrees to cooperate with MIT Press in any investigation of unauthorized access or use. MIT Press will not bring an action against an Authorized User without first consulting the Subscribing Institution.

2. Disclaimer of Warranties—Limitation of Liability.

The disclaimers and limitations stated here apply not only to the Subscribing Institution as such but to all Authorized Users.

MIT PRESS MAKES NO WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, WITH RESPECT TO MIT COGNET, WHICH ARE LICENSED "AS IS". IN NO EVENT WILL MIT PRESS OR ANY OTHER PARTY WHO HAS BEEN INVOLVED IN THE CREATION, PRODUCTION, OR DELIVERY OF MIT COGNET BE LIABLE FOR SPECIAL, DIRECT, INDIRECT, RELIANCE, INCIDENTAL, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, INCLUDING LOSS OF DATA OR PROFITS OR FOR INABILITY TO USE MIT COGNET, TO ANY PARTY EVEN IF MIT PRESS OR SUCH OTHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. IN NO EVENT SHALL MIT PRESS OR SUCH OTHER PARTY'S LIABILITY FOR ANY DAMAGES OR LOSS TO SUBSCRIBING INSTITUTION OR ANY OTHER PARTY EXCEED THE LICENSE FEE PAID BY SUBSCRIBING INSTITUTION FOR USE OF MIT COGNET.

3. Term and Termination.

This Agreement shall become effective upon MIT Press's receipt of this document signed by the Subscribing Institution, and shall remain in effect thereafter for so long as the Subscribing Institution remains current in its subscription payments. Payment terms shall be as provided on the applicable MIT CogNet invoice.

In the event that Subscribing Institution shall fail to perform any obligation under this Agreement, MIT Press may, in addition to any other remedies it may have under law, terminate the Agreement. Immediately after termination of the Agreement, Subscribing Institution shall immediately discontinue all use of MIT CogNet.

4. General.

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto and supersedes all prior oral and written and all contemporaneous oral negotiations, commitments, and understandings. The various headings in this Agreement are informational only and do not limit the scope or content of the subject matter contained therein. No waiver, amendment, or modification of this Agreement shall be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the parties hereto. This Agreement shall be interpreted according to the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. No purchase order shall supersede the terms of Agreement.

The Subscribing Institution may not assign or transfer its rights under this Agreement.

Should any provision of this Agreement be held to be void or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect to read and to be construed as if the void or unenforceable provisions were originally deleted.
