Internet Protocol Address(es) ("IP Addresses"):

This Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of this day, the_____of_____,_____, by and between The MIT Press, a  department of Massachusetts Institute of Technology ("MIT Press"), and the institution identified above ("Subscribing Institution").  The term "Subscribing Institution" includes remote sites or campuses of the  Subscribing Institution that are centrally administered, but not any remote teaching campus that has a separate administrative staff; any campus of the latter type must be separately licensed in its own right.  This Agreement sets forth Subscribing Institution's rights  and obligations regarding access to and use of CogNet®, the brain and cognitive science community online,  currently located at: http://cognet.mit.edu.  CogNet is provided by MIT Press and its suppliers, subject to the Subscribing Institution's agreement to the  terms and conditions below.

Please address any questions concerning the terms of the agreement to jdpcs-licenses@mit.edu .   Access or subscription queries should be directed to cognet@mit.edu .

By executing this Agreement, the Subscribing Institution accepts the following terms and conditions:

1.  Scope of License.  Subscribing Institution Use Restrictions.
Under this Agreement, Subscribing Institution is granted a nonexclusive, revocable, nontransferable right and license to access and use CogNet on the World Wide Web via the Subscribing Institution's IP addresses and,  in connection with the foregoing, to permit Subscribing Institution's Authorized Users to access and use CogNet.

"Authorized Users" are the  employees, faculty, staff, and students officially affiliated with the  Subscribing Institution or patrons of the Subscribing Institution's library facilities. This includes occasional users who access CogNet through stations physically located on the site and under the control and administration of the Subscribing Institution. There are no contractual  restrictions on the number of Authorized Users who may access CogNet at any given time.

Except as noted below with respect to copy-protected content, an Authorized User may make the following uses of CogNet content:

- Download articles, chapters, and other similar quantities of such material for personal use, and archive similar quantities of such material on his/her own personal computer. Note: the purpose of this is to enable research-driven, as-needed downloading. This means (among other things) that bulk downloading is expressly forbidden, as is serial or cumulative downloading that results in the user reproducing on his or her computer, in effect, all or any substantial subset of any journal issue, book, or other work contained in CogNet.

- Print out journal articles, chapters of books, and other similar quantities of such material for personal use. As above, bulk printing and serial printing that results in the user reproducing all or any substantial subset of any journal issue or book or other work contained in CogNet, are not allowed.

- Send one copy of any article, chapter, and other similar quantity of material by email, hard copy or fax to one person at another location for that individual's personal use as above. This means (among other things) that bulk forwarding is expressly forbidden, as is serial or cumulative forwarding that results in a third person's reproducing on his or her computer, in effect, all or any substantial subset of any journal issue, book, or other work contained in CogNet.

- Make traditional scholarly re-use of material within the bounds of fair use.

- Provide to any library via paper, fax or digital transmission, a facsimile image (e.g., a PDF file) that is an exact representation of the print pages, or a printout of an electronic file, for interlibrary loan under CONTU guidelines.

- Place copies of limited excerpts from CogNet – not to exceed, except in unusual circumstances, a single article from any given journal issue or a single chapter from any book, or a comparable quantity of other material – in "e-reserves" for the use of students in a particular course on a password-protected basis, provided that any material placed in e-reserves will be deleted at the conclusion of the course to which it relates. For the avoidance of doubt: material may be maintained in e-reserves until the end of such course even if this license shall have terminated sooner.

All other uses are prohibited.

Please note, however, that the content of CogNet is derived from many sources, including but not limited to MIT Press, other publishers, and individuals who post material of their own. Some of this material is copy-protected, The above permissions to download, print out, and distribute copies, and place copies in e-reserves, do not apply to materials that are copy-protected, and any attempt to disable copy-protection of such materials is a violation of the licenses herein granted. All rights in CogNet content not specifically licensed for access, use, or copying under this agreement are reserved by the respective copyright owners.

The Subscribing Institution is responsible for taking reasonable measures to prevent access by unauthorized persons to its IP addresses, and is responsible for terminating any unauthorized access of which it has actual notice or knowledge. The Subscribing Institution will not be held responsible for uses of CogNet that are contrary to the guidelines stated above, provided that such uses are without its express or implied consent, and provided that it promptly notifies MIT Press of any such use of which it becomes aware and takes all reasonable steps to terminate such activity.

If MIT Press has reason to suspect that access or use of CogNet in violation of the terms of this Agreement has occurred or is occurring, it reserves the right to suspend access by the Subscribing Institution concerned, or the IP Address(es) concerned, until the matter is satisfactorily resolved.  The Subscribing Institution agrees to cooperate with MIT Press in any investigation of unauthorized access or  use.  MIT Press will not bring an action against an Authorized User without first consulting the Subscribing  Institution.

2.  Disclaimer of Warranties—Limitation of Liability.

MIT PRESS MAKES NO WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, WITH RESPECT TO COGNET, WHICH IS LICENSED "AS IS".  IN NO EVENT WILL MIT PRESS OR ANY OTHER PARTY  WHO HAS BEEN INVOLVED IN THE CREATION, PRODUCTION, OR DELIVERY OF COGNET OR ITS CONTENT BE LIABLE FOR SPECIAL, DIRECT, INDIRECT, RELIANCE, INCIDENTAL, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, INCLUDING LOSS OF DATA OR PROFITS OR FOR INABILITY TO USE COGNET, TO ANY PERSON EVEN IF MIT PRESS OR SUCH OTHER PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.  IN NO EVENT SHALL MIT PRESS'S AND SUCH OTHER  PARTIES' AGGREGATE LIABILITY FOR DAMAGES OR LOSS TO SUBSCRIBING INSTITUTION AND ALL AUTHORIZED USERS EXCEED  THE LICENSE FEE PAID BY SUBSCRIBING INSTITUTION FOR USE OF COGNET. The disclaimers and limitations stated here apply not only to the Subscribing Institution as such but to all  Authorized Users.

3.  Term and Termination.

This Agreement shall become effective upon MIT Press's receipt of this document signed by the Subscribing Institution, and a full year's subscription payment.  It shall renew thereafter from year to year, for so long as the Subscribing Institution remains current in its subscription payments. However, MIT Press reserves the right, as of any renewal date, to require revision of this Agreement as a condition of continuing Subscribing Institution's subscription, provided it gives the Subscribing Institution notice thereof at least thirty (30) days prior to the renewal date.  If the Subscribing Institution declines to accept such revision its subscription will terminate as of the end of the then-current period.

In the event that Subscribing Institution shall fail to perform any obligation under this Agreement, MIT Press may, in addition to any other remedies it may have under law, terminate this Agreement and discontinue Subscribing Institution's access to CogNet.  Copies downloaded or otherwise made prior to termination in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Agreement may continue to be used in conformance with paragraph 1 after termination.  The provisions of paragraphs 2 and 4 will survive termination.

4.  General.

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto and supersedes all prior oral and written and all contemporaneous oral negotiations, commitments, and understandings.  The various headings in this Agreement are informational only and do not limit the scope or content of the subject matter contained therein.  No waiver, amendment, or modification of this Agreement shall be effective unless it is in writing and signed by the parties hereto.  This Agreement shall be interpreted according to the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.  No purchase order shall supersede the terms of this Agreement.

The Subscribing Institution may not assign or transfer its rights under this Agreement.

Should any provision of this Agreement be held to be void or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect to read and to be construed as if the void or unenforceable provisions were originally deleted.
